When seconds count, training makes the difference.

Make sure your team is ready.
Learn how to safely and confidently respond to natural gas or electrical-related hazards.

First Responder e-Learning Program

Our program was designed with first responders, for first responders. Complete both courses of study:

- Natural Gas Safety Training Certification
- Electrical Safety Training Certification

Each program was designed to have multiple modules that are self-directed, interactive and instructive for safely identifying and responding to utility incidents.
