Be ready to respond to the “silent killer.”

Carbon monoxide kills more than 400 people every year. Get the knowledge and skills you need to recognize and respond to CO incidents.

First Responder e-Learning Program

The interactive e-learning environment is quick and easy to navigate and gives you helpful tools to enrich your learning experience, including:

- Visual aids to provide context and increase understanding
- Interactive definitions of important terms
- Frequent knowledge checks
- Handy user notes
- Supplemental resources to reinforce the lesson materials
